New Delhi is unlikely to hold trade talks in a hostile environment, they said requesting anonymity. negotiate trade deals from a position of strength Long-term trade negotiations cannot happen in an adverse political environment," one of the people cited above said. India has been angered in recent days by pro-Khalistan slogans being raised at an event in Toronto on April 28 that was attended by Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, and a float at a Khalsa Day parade at Malton town in Greater Toronto Area on May 5 that depicted the Indian premier in chains and within a cage.

The Canadian deputy high commissioner was summoned to the external affairs ministry for a protest against the event in Toronto. New Delhi reacted more strongly to the Khalsa Day parade, calling on the Trudeau government to stop giving "safe haven and political space" to criminal and secessionist elements.

"Canada must stop supporting anti-India elements and act against them to create a cordial environment for trade talks," the person cited above said. The external affairs ministry also told the Canadian deputy envoy that events such as the rais ing of separatist slogans on Khalistan at an event personally addressed by Trudeau would impact India-Canada relations.

Canada had unilaterally paused talks on an Early Progress Trade Agreement (EPTA) in August 2023, weeks before Trudeau sent bilateral ties into a tailspin by alleging in Parliament that there was a link between Indian government agents and the killing of pro-Khalistan leader Hardeep Singh Nijjar in June last year. The Indian side dismissed Trudeau's accusation as "absurd". Last Friday, Canadian police arrested and charged three Indian nationals for the murder of Nijjar and said they were probing whether the men had ties to the Indian government. New Delhi had also conveyed its strong concerns about anti-India elements promoting secessionism from Canadian soil and inciting violence against Indian diplomats on the sidelines of the G20 Summit last September, a second person said.

India was negotiating an interim EPTA, which would have culminated in a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA) or a wideranging trade deal. The negotiations were progressing well before the pause. Addressing an event at the Montreal Council on Foreign Relations on May 7, Indian high commissioner Saniay Verma said bilateral trade has consistently increased, including during the period "when we saw a divergence of views between the two sides on political issues".India's main imports from Canada between April 2023 and February 2024 were coking coal (US$850 million), lentils (US$604 million, marking a 75% increase over the same period in the last fiscal), and non-industrial diamonds (US$270 million), Verma said. India's main exports to Canada were prepared medicines, shrimps, smartphones, basmati rice and train coaches. The balance of two-way trade is in favour of Canada. During 2023-24 (April-February), India exported merchandise worth US$3.5 billion to Canada, a 7.5% year-on-year fall. Canada, however, saw a 7.43% jump in imports (US$4.10 billion) to India during the same period.

Citing the former premier of the Canadian prov ince of British Columbia, Christy Clark, HT reported in November 2023 that Canada could suffer if a trade agreement with India is not secured amid bilateral tensions. "It's Canada that suffers. The products that we produce are high value, high quality, but not impossible for India to find elsewhere in the world," Clark said.

INFORMED OF ARRESTS IN NIJJAR CASE BUT NOT YET PROVIDED PROOF: MEA

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Canada has informed Indian authorities of the arrest of three Indian citizens for the killing of pro-Khalistan activist Hardeep Singh Nijiar but is vet to provide any "specific or relevant evidence" regarding the case, external affairs ministry spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said on Thursday.

The two countries are currently engaged in discussions on issues such as the activities of pro-Khalistan elements and threats against Indian diplomats in Canada, Jaiswal acknowledged at a regular media briefing. The developments come against the backdrop of a marked downturn in bilateral ties following Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau's allegation last September that Indian government agents were linked to the killing of Nijjar, who was gunned down outside a gurdwara in the Vancouver suburb of Surrey in June 2023. India has dismissed the accusation as "absurd" and maintained that Canada has shared no evidence to back up the allegation. Last Friday, Canadian police announced the arrest and charging of the three Indians - Karanpreet Singh 28, Kamalpreet Singh and Karan Brar, both 22 – for the murder of Nijjar and said they were probing whether the men had ties to the Indian government, "Canada has informed us about the arrests...We have been informed that three people have been arrested and they happen to be Indian nationals," Jaiswal said in response to questions.

He added that "no formal communication" on the matter had reached the Indian side.

"Let me first make it clear that no specific or relevant evidence or information has been shared by the Canadian authorities till date. You will, therefore, understand our view that the matter is being pre-judged," he said.
